

I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. This is simply an attempt to limit competition and my choices as a subscribing consumer. I am paying for this service. XM is not forcing their programming on the general public. I am making the same kind of choice when I tune my TV to the Weather Channel instead of waiting for the local 10 o'clock news to see the weather.

Respectfully,
David Costello